Before we even log in

The image shows a screenshot of the Discovery Education website. On the left side, there is a vertical sidebar with a 'Discovery EDUCATION' logo at the top, followed by a classroom scene featuring a giraffe, a red airplane, a globe, a chalkboard with the number '1', and a young boy sitting at a desk. The main content area has a dark blue header with the 'Discovery EDUCATION' logo and navigation links for Administrators, Teachers, Parents, Students, and About Discovery Education. Below the header is a login section with 'Subscriber Login' and 'Passcode/New User' tabs, input fields for Username and Password, a 'Forgot username / password?' link, and a 'LOGIN' button. The background of the login section is a large image of a lion cub. Below the login section is a promotional banner for 'Attend Day of Discovery September 23' with a 'LEARN MORE' button. At the bottom of the main content area, there are three tabs: 'Engage', 'Transform', and 'Achieve'. A small footer text at the very bottom reads: 'In addition, DE encourages educators to become more involved in their buildings, their communities, and their states sharing'.

My (0,Y) Find

M, find the slope
Take two coordinates or two ordered pairs
(3,1) (4,6) if you dare
Label Xs and Ys
Hold your change in Y values
Over change in X values in the air
5 over 1 now we're there
Yea the slope has got it covered
Take the rise over the run
You gotta rise before you run
Up 5 and over 1

Chorus:

The equation of a line
 $y = mx + b$ that crosses y
That's the intercept we're trying to find
So we can always be (0,y)'d
As long as slope is still rise over run
Then we can plug in any X just for fun
And find every corresponding Y
To locate any coordinate that falls on the line
Be my (0,y) find

The Spoken Word

The image shows a screenshot of the Discovery Education website interface, overlaid on a photograph of a young boy in a classroom. The website has a dark blue header with the Discovery Education logo and a search bar. Below the header is a navigation menu with options like 'Home', 'Teacher Centre', and 'Professional Development'. The main content area features a 'SUBJECT/GRADE SEARCH' sidebar, a central video player showing a statue of a Prime Minister with the text 'Prime Ministers of Canada: Canada First' and 'New song from Sara Jordan Publishing', and a 'MY BUILDER TOOLS' section with links to 'Assignment Builder', 'Writing Prompt Builder', and 'Quiz Builder'. A 'TEACHER CENTRE' section at the bottom right includes a link to 'Atlas Canada Interactive Map'. The background photograph shows a boy sitting at a desk in a classroom with various educational items like a globe, a rocket, and a number '5' on the wall.

Closed Captioning

Description
According to Wikipedia, "Closed captioning is a term describing several systems developed to display text on a television or video screen to provide additional or interpretive information to viewers who wish to access it. Closed captions typically display a transcription of the audio portion of a program as it occurs (either verbatim or in edited form), sometimes excluding non-speech elements."

Rationale
Closed captioning provides a critical link to information for individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing. For individuals whose native language is not English, English language captions improve comprehension and fluency. Captions also help improve literacy skills.

How to Accommodate

Mac Directions

- Directions for how to access the closed-captioning feature on Mac 10.4 computers - Download the install package from the OS

1. Install Tiger 10.4 package for uninstalreaching fx
2. Drag VLC to the application folder
3. Click once on the video "What's_in_the_Solar_System_10f" then
4. go to File -> stop down to Get Info
5. At Open with, VLC - select Change All. (From here on out, it will open your videos with VLC media player which will allow you to view any CC videos)
